

After the Confetti Settles

Matthew 21:12-22

On Palm Sunday, we celebrate the arrival of King Jesus as he entered Jerusalem. But what happened after the confetti settled and the parade was over? What difference does Jesus make in our lives?

Life is never the same after King Jesus arrives. Jesus will challenge our priorities, heal our hurts, confront our biases, and expect fruit in our lives.

The Arrival of the King (1-11)

People take notice when King Jesus arrives

Jesus Challenges our Priorities (12-13)

He removes the weapons of mass distraction

Jesus Heals our Hurts (14)

He removes the barriers that keep us from worshipping

Jesus Confronts our Biases (15-17)

He comforts the afflicted and afflicts the comfortable

Jesus Expects Fruit in our Lives (18-22)

He reminds us that outward appearances are not enough

Have you given King Jesus permission to cleanse and change your life?
